

JARED R. VERMILLION

(206) 607-4159

vermillion@carneylaw.com

Jared R. Vermillion's practice primarily focuses on advising startups and emerging companies through a variety of matters such as entity formations, raising capital through venture and angel investment financings, commercial transactions, regulatory compliance, M&A, and corporate governance.

A Washington native, Jared joined Carney Badley Spellman in 2021, and has experience advising companies across a diverse breadth of industries including SaaS, I-502, blockchain and private equity.

Education

JD, University of Washington
School of Law, 2017

BS, California Lutheran
University, Business Administration with an emphasis in Management, 2009

Bar and Court Admissions

State of Washington

Professional Associations

Washington State Bar
Association (WSBA)